

Backyard Wildlife Bingo

wildEarthLab.com

Look up pollinators in your local area!	Spy an earthworm	Read about endangered species in your area	Hear a songbird	See a pollinator like a butterfly or bee!
See an amphibian, like a frog or salamander!	Plant a flower that is native to your local area!	Spot a rabbit	Read about your local area's natural ecosystem	Spot a slug or snail!
Spy a chrysalis or cocoon	See a spider!	Free space (go outside!)	See an animal foraging or hunting	Look up low-water use plants in your local area!
Hang up a birdhouse!	Spot a raptor like a hawk, falcon, or owl	Spy an insect!	Spot a reptile like a snake, turtle, or lizard	Spot a squirrel
Spy an animal's home, like a den, bird's nest, or spider web!	Find a bird feather!	Put a jingle bell on your cat's collar	Spot a nocturnal animal, like a bat or a raccoon!	Read about the native songbirds in your area!

Play bingo:

Play in your own backyard or at a local park or natural area!

Cross out squares as you do them!

Backyard wildlife beginner: Any 5 in a row!

Backyard wildlife enthusiast: 4 corners!

Backyard wildlife naturalist: Every square!